TIMELY SUGGESTIONS

Let's not fret about the weather,
Tho the rains are sure to come,
For the clouds keep gittin' thicker,
An' big drops are patterin' down.

Let's just think about our blessin's,
An' stop worryin' 'bout our feet,
Then our smiles 'll git bright an' cheerful
As we hurry along the street.

For way out midway o' Main Street
Stands the Phelps Dodge Company store,
With its portals thrown wide open
Welcomin' all, an' room for more.

For you there will be a welcome,
Perhaps, a cheery smile or two,
They have coats an' umbrellas,
An' you'll find, they've rubbers, too.

What's the use o' waitin' longer,
Or a wanderin' round about?
When that store's brimful o' somethin'
You've been a'lookin' for, old scout.

FORMER BISBEE "Y. W." SECRETARY DIES IN IOWA

The following account of the death of Miss Elizabeth R. Jones, former secretary of the Bisbee Y. W. C. A., at her home at Fairfield, Iowa, June 12, is republished from the Fairfield Ledger of June 14.

Elizabeth R. Jones, third daughter of Isaac D. and Eliza Jones, was born in Fairfield October 21st, 1865. Her death occurred after a brief illness in the early morning of June 12th. Miss Jones was a member of the second class graduated from the Fairfield high school, in 1884, and later graduated from the State Teachers' College at Cedar Falls.

She taught for a few years, but turned aside from teaching to definite christian work as state secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and later was city secretary in Sioux City, Cedar Rapids and Bisbee, Ariz. She was successful in her work with young women and in all these places made and kept many warm friends. Four years ago she returned to Fairfield to aid in caring for her aged parents.

She was a member from girlhood of the First Presbyterian church and a charter member of the Mission Band. In her later years she had been active in the Sunday school, both as an officer and teacher, in the Missionary Society and in the Westminster Guild. About a year ago she helped in the re-organization of the Christian Endeavor Society and these young people depended on her for counsel and leadership.

Although she was active and enjoyed her work in the church, in the P. E. O., of which she was a member, and in all lines of civic and philanthropic advancement, she had rare judgment and keen insight and no duty in her home and to her loved ones was neglected. She was possessed of a keen sense of humor, of an optimistic and unselfish spirit and a faith which did not falter in the testing time of pain and parting, her only regret being that she must leave her parents in their time of need.

To all her work Elizabeth Jones gave the best of her well trained mind, exceptional executive ability and a love and consecration which marks her as one of the rare women of her day.

Frank Jones, Waterloo, Mrs. Elmer Brown, Greeley, Colo., and Miss Grace Jones, Denver, Colo., are here for the funeral, which will be held this afternoon at the Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. H. A. Mosser and Dr. W. E. Parsons.

CANADIANS BAN KILTS.

(By Review Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Ont., June 24.—The militia department has decided that no more kilts will be issued to Scotch regiments in the Canadian overseas forces. The pipers are to be the balmoral instead of the regular pattern caps, as a distinguishing mark. It has been found that the kilt is not suitable for trench work in rain and cold weather and has caused considerable inconvenience.

PEACE MARTYRS

TO INVITE BRYAN (By Review Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, June 24.—The American Union Against Militarism which has invited William Jennings Bryan, Dr. David Starr Jordan and Frank P. Walsh to join with three representative Mexicans at El Paso in an unofficial "peace conference," announced tonight that four of the six men had accepted and would leave at once for the border. Mr. Walsh is the only American who has wired his acceptance, but all three Mexicans who were requested to serve have expressed their willingness to do so. They are Modesto U. Rollan, of Yucatan, a prominent engineer who has offices in New York; Dr. Atl, editor of a weekly in Mexico City, and Senor Luis Manuel Rajas, director of the national library of Mexico City.

Efforts made by the union to locate Mr. Bryan and Dr. Jordan thus far have been unavailing.
